++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:

Cloudy with occasionally heavy, perhaps thundery rain.

Today:

It will be cloudy with occasionally heavy, thundery rain spreading northwards through much of the day. Winds will become strong along Kent coasts later, giving a rather cool feel to the day. Maximum temperature 18 deg C (64 deg F).

Tonight:

Outbreaks of rain will clear most areas through the evening, then mainly dry with clear spells developing overnight. Strong winds along coasts will tend to ease later. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Saturday:

Variable cloud will allow warm sunny spells to develop. Most places will be dry until mid-afternoon. Then further heavy, perhaps thundery rain will arrive by the evening, continuing overnight. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:

Often cloudy with occasionally heavy rain or thundery showers through the period. Sometimes warm in sunny intervals between showers.
